

THREE ARE DEAD AS RESULT OF RACE RIOT

Soperton, Ga., Aug. 27.—Two negroes lynched and a posse in pursuit of the wife of one of the victims; the killing of a prominent planter, a member of the posse; a probably fatal injury of the sheriff of Montgomery County, and the wounding of several other members of the posse, summarized the result of one of the most exciting incidents this country has ever known.

Ben Clark, an escaped convict from the Bibb county chain gang, was shot to death after a fierce battle early today, and his body burned. The negro threatened to kill Nicholas Adams, a merchant of Kibbee, "and a hundred others."

John Sweeney, who harbored the convict, was taken from a passenger train one mile from Tarrytown tonight and lynched, the posse being then set out in search of Sweeney's wife, who, it is said, was in the neighborhood. Intense excitement prevails throughout this section.

James Burden, a prominent planter and member of the posse, was shot and killed by the negro. The other members of the posse, who were shot by the negro were Sheriff James Leaser, Walter Simmons and three others unknown. The officer received an ugly wound in the breast.

The posse found Clark in Sweeney's house. Sweeney's wife was at home, but Sweeney was absent. The Sheriff told Clark to surrender. For answer he received a 44-calibre bullet fired from an automatic gun. Durden was shot and other members fell before the torrent of lead dealt by the negro. He continued to fire until his ammunition was exhausted. He was then overpowered and his body riddled with bullets. He wore a steel breast plate that turned Winchester bullets. A pile of logs was covered with crude turpentine and the body was cremated.

In the excitement the woman escaped. The events of the day forced the intense spirit of the posse and it is said she cannot escape the search that is being instituted tonight.

Sweeney was caught here late this afternoon. He was carried aboard a northbound train to a secluded wood near Tarrytown, where his body was riddled with bullets after being swung up to a sapling.

F. C. Carroll was in today to buy for a paper which he sends to his mother, and also for one he sends F. C. Carroll, a brother in Texas. Many do this, take it for their friends and relatives.

TWELVE MEN KILLED BY AN EXPLOSION

Key West, Fla. Aug. 27. As a result of the explosion at noon today of 700 pounds of dynamite at Boonchick, twelve miles from Key West on the Florida East Coast railway, ten men are dead and five others are seriously wounded. The explosion was caused by a member of the railroad construction force carelessly throwing a lighted cigarette into a box of fuses.

Nine of the workmen met instant death and the tenth died while being brought to hospital here. The men were hurled high into the air and the bodies of the dead were almost beyond recognition, the arms and legs being torn from the bodies of some, while the faces of others were mere masses of flesh.

When the explosion occurred, the fifteen men were standing in water four feet deep and directly beneath them was the 700 pounds of dynamite, ready for the blast when the men should stop work for dinner.

According to one of the wounded, a workman— one of the men to meet instant death— threw a lighted cigarette to one side, not noticing that it fell into the box containing the fuses which were connected with the heavy charges of heavy explosives beneath them.

A few seconds and the men, water, mud and tons of dirt were thrown seventy to ninety feet in the air. Tags at once brought the dead and the more seriously wounded to this city, the latter being placed in the Malkney Hospital.

Most of the victims of the explosion arrived here from New York last Sunday.

The dead: J. Kelley, G. Sapkey, J. Brennan, T. Convery, J. Gallagher, J. Lannahan, J. Garrity, T. Travis, J. Mahor, T. Duran. Two mangled.

Probably fatally injured: James Gallagher, aged 40, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Timothy McDonald, aged 31, Black Oak, Cork, Ireland; E. Hannon, assistant foreman, aged 33, 110 Grand Street, Brooklyn, N. Y.; James McMahon, aged 31, 51 Fulton Street, New York; James "Sand" N. Y.

Late this afternoon six of the more seriously injured were brought to the hospital here. Their injuries were not considered fatal.

They are: Pat Sullivan, George Stuck, John Mullen, Patrick McGuff, Peter Bryan and Mely Foley. About fifty men were at work, all close together when the box of fuses was discovered ablaze and had it not been for the sounding of the alarm by the dredge Mento it is doubtful if a third of the men would have escaped with their lives.

There is some contention as to the cause of the explosion.

An inquest will be held tomorrow.

NO HOPE FOR THE DISMISSED CADETS

Washington, Aug. 27. "It is perfectly useless for any of the young cadets who were dismissed by President Taft last week from the West Point military academy for hazing cadet Orlando Sutton, to make any efforts toward reinstatement," said a well known army officer today.

"The law is mandatory on the subject of the dismissal of a cadet found guilty of hazing," he added, and neither the President nor the Secretary of War has any power to reinstate any of them. The law against hazing provides for dismissal of cadets found guilty of participating in hazing or countenancing such practices, and they are not eligible to again enter the army through civilian examination until twenty years after the class of which they were members has graduated."

These statements were made in answer to inquiries at the War Department regarding the efforts making by some cadets for reinstatement at West Point.

Miss Ruth Harmon, who has been spending the last week with Mrs. C. E. Harmon on West Main, returned to her home in Troy this afternoon.

'Moral Wave' Hit the People
 In the way some headwinds put it. The people can swim though.

The Shinn Thinks wonders if that wasn't an acropium that panned over the city the other night. Hardly, it might have been the pure of cotton.

Morse has been let out on bond and is laying plans to regain his fortune, or the one that he was keeping temporarily for some one else before his conviction.

Engene V. Deba says it is just with the people whether he will be a candidate or not. That is just on Genen's part and we hope all of the people will hear of his statement so they will let him rest.

It would be a funny joke on Hon. Emmett O. Neal if the opponents of prohibition should throw him over board and take up the Hon. Mr. Springgens then candidate for Governor. And Mr. O'Neal has endeavored so hard to keep himself in the limelight on this question too!—Greenboro Watchman.

Owing to the prominence of Hariman he is getting more advertising space since his return to American than any other man not excepting President Taft. Some of the reports have him almost dead, some say that he came home to rest while others feel that he came home to look after a baby railroad.

The people have been reading of the Wright boys for some time. They are pictured and described as hard working, bald headed young men—not so young either. Just old enough to know better but they are known to be in the bachelor class. This state of affairs had gone about far enough and now comes a woman saying that she and Orville were married twelve years ago in Nebraska. The Wrights say they are not the right Wrights and they know nothing of the woman. She put out the story for the same reason that actresses put out stories about their stolen diamonds. She wants to get her name in the papers.

Forty three years ago a man left his home in South Carolina, like many others had done before him. He is now a resident of Memphis but the other day he got to thinking of the well he used to drink water out of when a boy. He got so thirsty for some of that water till he pucked his gup and hit a fast train for his old home. He drove out and tanked up on water looked over the landscape and stepped on another train going back to Memphis and said he felt satisfied. The water tasted natural. When a man does without good water for forty or fifty years we imagine nothing will take its place.

THE BUILDING EXPRESSION

There is all the difference in the world in the expression on the face of a man who is having a house built and the one who is looking at the house the other man built. One may habitually wear a happy smile, but when he goes to having his house erected or remodeling that expression changes. It may be because lumber is coming in, or not coming at all, it may be because the painter fell down on the calculations or the plumber has found where something else was needed not figured in the original plans. It may be because the hardware man's estimate was a minimum to start but in proving a maximum it may be a hundred and one little difference in things that may arise to effect the change in the facial expression but the change is visible.

Few men ever have more than one home built. Next time they buy one that has been finished. No man ever built a home and found when he settled up every thing that it cost much less than he figured in the outset.

JUST A FEW THINGS

The Safe and Sound headquarters at Montgomery are sending out some circular letters with the following views showing why the amendment should be killed.

To make them forget that the Confederate veterans have not been paid the amounts promised them as pensions.

To make them forget the $100,000 of the people's money appropriated for these lawyers who are close to the governor.

To distract attention from the fact that the State treasury is facing a deficit.

To perpetuate those laws which make it possible for sheriffs, constables and police officers to break into and search a private residence for if this prohibition amendment is engrafted into the constitution no home will be protected against arbitrary search and the people of Alabama will have less freedom than those of Russia now enjoy.

To appoint the Rev. Brooks Lawrence of Ohio guardian of the people's conscience.

To force the several counties of Alabama to pay $50,000 of the people's money to hold a special election.

To divert public attention from the condition of the children who labor in the Comer cotton factories.

The letter closes with the terse inquiry: "What are you going to do about it?"

Up to this time the Eagle has not received one of them but it is said that they are being generally distributed over the state.

OUR LEGISLATURE

The Birmingham Ledger has the following remarks on the legislature:

We will have to get along with out the legislature. There was some excitement while the body was in session for one never knew what might happen next.

From day to day a man didn't know what he would be forbidden or whether the next bill would require him to go barefooted to church or require him to sleep in his overcoat.

This session might well be termed the all of a sudden legislature. There was a delightful alarmness about it. One never knew whether buttermilk would be forbidden any moment and said to say "prohibition beer" is forbidden by law" and so is methuzin.

A merchant can't give away trading stamps and when one awakes any morning he didn't know what town he lived in nor indeed what county. It was an exciting kind of life but it is over. Now the only amusement is to decide what is in the King bill and what is in the Fuller bill.

Really it is a sad thing to go back to normal conditions and be like other people. It is sad to think that there cannot even be any excitement about the state's money. The law condoned the mixing of the funds and the old soldiers never will get a clear hour!

statement of the particular kind for it isn't particular now.

When we select another legislature to regulate railroads and have it forget railroads and devote a whole session to human throat it may be years away. There is no way a legislature that got further away from the election pledge. The state democratic platform made by friends of the administration now in power pledged every democrat in the state to local option. That's one of the oddities. The legislature just swapped horses and turned sorcerers.

Still it was a representative legislature if it did do queer things with all that suddenness. We shall miss it every hour of the day and wake up with a start to find it has done something queer in the night.

It will be ten years before Alabama has another legislature to go to Montgomery with the same ideas as to what is best for the state. In fact it would be hard to elect a set of men with the same ideas for by the time the letters are to be elected upon another leader will have come up with different ideas but he may be a man who does not rule with the same iron hand.

A hearing before the legislature in Birmingham the other day a negro dryman was arrested under the Fuller bill.

Why did you try that boys, handling your coat? Did you see the coat he gave me? Father.

 While we are advocating similar improvements here by various means, who have announced what is the matter with you coming the stand up and tell us a necessity to build schools here. This and pig is in need and we are likely to awaken some morning and find the Wright Bros. and all their kind around in it or one of the open air yards. It appears to be a trap set for this would be a new jumping with a statue upon it. It is the recent printing, inside and out on the standpipe.

By the way, in any of our Wiscacies who know the spot of Ann who let Bill Patterson inform us what his business of this project? Perhaps the recent legislature enacted against it would no doubt have the proverbial fountain which would be too wet for Alabama in the present stage of proceedings. Such a place would contribute exceedingly to the pleasure of many and I trust to see no further step being taken toward accomplishing something in this line. TOM.

WANT HIM REINSTATED.

The mayor and citizens of West Point, Ga. are trying to get John Henry Booker, the young man who, with several other fellow students was dismissed from the United States Military Academy at West Point, N. Y., reinstated. They are indignant and say that his record was spotless from childhood and that his behavior at this school has showed a perfect record. Below is a letter requesting the secretary of war to investigate and reconsider his dismissal:

"Honorable Secretary of War, Washington, D. C.

"The citizens of West Point, Ga., most earnestly pray you reconsider dismissal of John H. Booker, Jr., from military academy. His record here is spotless from childhood."

JOHN T. JOHNSON, Mayor."

H. A. Blount returned today from his farm in Clinch, Ga.

Miss Daisy Simonton went to Ozark today to spend a week.

Sal McElther returned to his home in Slocumb today.

Miss Resne Cox went to Ashford today.

J. H. Jones of Troy is in the city today.

G. H. Guilford of Columbia is here today.

A. E. Killebrew of Newton is in the city.

O. Hatcher went to Hartford today.

Walter Wellman has made another unsuccessful attempt to reach the North pole. He has already won enough fame "trying" so about the best thing he could do now is to come back to the states and go in to some kind of business. For instance, oysters are nearly "ripe" and if he would open up an oyster wagon on Herald Square in New York, he would probably do a good business as people like to trade with famous men and those Yankees are exceptionally fond of oysters and fish roe.

"Not to read any books by the same author!"—Cleveland Leader

COAL.

Heats better, lasts longer, than any coal on the market. Buy now while it is cheap. Burts & Cotton, Phone 62.

The "Kick Kolum" of this paper is a good place to look when you want to see what is on the other fellow's mind. We all have some objections, and we are entitled to make them, and this paper holds that it is better to let the man make his suggestions through its columns than allow him to talk it out on the streets. While kicking though, don't fail to commend it, when just commendation is needed.

Little Willie—"Say, pa, what is a genius?"

Pa—"A genius, my boy, is a person whom nature lets in on the ground floor, but whom circumstances force to live in an attic."—Chicago News.

Squire "You can't grumble at the market for pigs just now; they're fetching a good price."

Old Tenatin Farmer—"Well, as far as that do go, I suppose they be, but look what a price to pay!"—Lunch.

The Parson—The Jones family looks very sheepish this morning. I wonder what the trouble is?

The Elder—I understand that they discovered last night that Jones' medical book, his wife's French novel and Willie's "Diamond Dick" were occupying the same hiding place.

A prisoner at the sessions had been duly convicted of theft, when it was soon, on "proving previous convictions," that he had actually been in prison at the time the theft was committed. "Why didn't you say so?" asked the judge of the prisoner angrily.

"Your lordship, I was afraid of prejudicing the jury against me."—Home Herald.
